We're here!—

WE'RE HERE!-

It's 7:30 in the morning, and it's black and it's cold. The moon is still out, the stars are still out; the sun won't be out for hours . . . but WE'RE HERE! It's 1974, and we've turned our clocks ahead one hour to save energy.

Some of us make feeble attempts at singing "By the light of the silvery moon" as the buses roll through the darkness. Some of us remember lines from poems: "In winter I get up at night" and "Look for me by moonlight, I'll come to thee by moonlight . . .

But most of us can't even remember our own names. We think maybe we have headaches, or sore throats; we'd better go to see the nurse, we'd better go home. we'd better go to sleeeeeeeep.

December, 1973-before DST

We're here in our long-legged pants and our long-sleeved flannel shirts, in our sweaters on top of sweaters on top of turtle-neck shirts. We're here in our coats and our mittens and our earmuffs. It's 1974, and we've turned our thermostats down to 68 degrees to save energy. The dress codes have been modified; and girls have changed their pleated uniform skirts for pants-suits and coordinated slack outfits, while boys have changed their neckties for high turtlenecks they can pull up around their ears. And we're still using up all our energy shiv-v-ver-t-r-ing.

HEALTH SERVICES

During the school year 1973-1974, 3747 students came to Health Services in the first 117 days; that means an average of thirty-two students a day came to seek tender loving care from Mrs. Verbish and Mrs. Piatti. Some came in connection with various testing programs administered by the nurses; there were 110 TB tests, 550 eye and ear tests, and 46 Sickle Cell Anemia tests. Some came with burns and blisters, or fevers and rashes; some had fallen down the stairs, some up the stairs. Some had shut locker doors on fingers; and some had torn their pants.

STUDENT SERVICES

Students turn to the Department of Student Services for assistance in any problems or difficulties which affect any area of social, personal, or academic progress. Here they bring their questions regarding schedule changes, curriculum planning, and graduation requirements; here they seek guidance in choosing a college or university, or a vocation or occupation to begin immediately upon graduation. Here from the four interested, sympathetic guidance counselors, they receive real student service.

RELIGION

Freshmen carry their heavy Bibles with them from class to class; inside the covers they have written chapter and verse for all the Messianic prophecies of Isaiah. They study the Old Testament as a preparation for the New Testament; they study the coming of Christ, the teachings of Christ, the beginnings of Christianity. Sophomores follow up this study with their study of the early fathers and doctors of the Church; the great councils, the great encyclicals, in their year of Church History. Juniors apply the teachings of the Church to their behavior, as they study Christian morality; and seniors attempt to find the place, the role, of the Christian in the complex world of today.

LANGUAGE

In the first year of any language, Latin German, French, or Spanish, all students struggle with the strange gender of nouns, pronouns, and adjectives, and with the peculiar endings they add to vocabulary words that are difficult enough to memorize in one form. They also study some geography, some history, some of the culture of the people, supplementing their textbook lessons with film strips, language labs—even Bingo games!

SOCIAL STUDIES

John Donne's famous quotation, "No man is an island." might well be the theme of the social studies courses. In their study of world history, modern European history. American history, geogra-phy, government, sociology, and econom-ics, students study political, social, and economic problems of their particular region, and how they relate to the problems of the world at large; they are made aware of their responsibilities to their fellow man, in their own community, and in the world.

MATHEMATICS

The Mathematics Department offers its students a wide variety of courses, from basic mathematics courses through algebra and trigonometry to drafting and computer programming. The students employ a number of useful aids, from plastic models to overhead projectors, to lend new clarity and understanding to presentations.

To stimulate the students' interest in mathematics, and to carry this interest outside the school, the department each year sponsors the Eighth Grade Math Tournament, with students from all the parochial schools participating.

SCIENCE

Sophomores sometimes shiver and shudder, squeak and squeal when they first smell and see and touch the specimens in the sophomore biology laboratories. But many of the students find that they really enjoy the scientific approach to study, the idea of learning through direct observation. Many students choose chemistry or physics in their junior and senior years: and many this year chose a new course in advanced biology, with one semester of anatomy, and one semester of microbiology, Of course, some of them did shiver and shudder, and squeak and squeal when they had to start dissecting their cats . . .

BUSINESS EDUCATION

In the various business courses offered at Bishop Noll, the students learn to do by doing. Through constant daily practice with typing and shorthand, with using the various business machines such as the dictaphone and the new electronic calculators, the students become quite proficient, with many qualified to work in business offices immediately upon graduation. In addition to the courses in typing and shorthand and secretarial practice, students choose courses in retailing and selling, in business law and management, and in consumer economics.

FINE ARTS

In the Fine Arts Department, students are given the opportunity to discover talents they may not have known they possessed, and to develop these talents to the best of their ability. In the courses in the Art Department, students develop their imagination and creativity through work with printing blocks and printing presses, as well as with oil paints and water colors. In the classes in band and choral, students learn the value of careful study of musical techniques, as well as the need for hours of practice.

HOME ARTS

In their first days in the Home Arts courses, students may experience burnt biscuits and burnt fingers; they may pin patterns on their material upside down, or cut their material wrongside up. But as they progress through their cooking classes, students learn to plan, prepare, and serve entire breakfasts, luncheons, and dinners, and also learn how to can and freeze foods for storage, while in their sewing classes, they learn to match the wildest plaids, and sew in invisible zippers; this year many girls also learned to knit scarves and mufflers.

JOURNOLL

This year for the first time The JourNoll sent a representative to Indiana University's High School Journalism Institute, held in Bloomington in July, prior to the 1973-74 school year. Editor-in-Chief Kathy Skiba spent two weeks studying with one hundred forty young journalists from throughout the Midwest, and won a first place editor's award.

In order to produce a more professional newspaper, The JourNoll staff strove for concise and objective news reporting, responsible editorial comment, and a variety of entertaining features. Among several innovations seen in The JourNoll this year were the "What's What" and "Around and About" columns, movie and music reviews, and the classified ads placed by the students. Mr. Douglas Parker is sponsor for the JourNoll.

HONOR SOCIETIES

Membership in Bishop Noll's National Honor Society is based on a student's scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Members are selected from juniors and seniors who rank in the upper one-third of their class scholastically and who, in the opinion of faculty members, have shown interest and participation in school activities. Once again this year, under the direction of Mrs. Betty Langedyk. The N.H.S. sponsored a Folk Festival, which was held on November 24th, 1973.

The purpose of National Business Honor Society is to promote business interest. In order to attain membership in this organization, an upperclassman must have a B average and must have taken at least 3 business courses. Sponsors are Mrs. Beatrice Pihulic and Sister Rosita.

Members of N.B.H.S., top: Mrs. Pihulic, Eleanore Bukowski, Denise Mullaney, Chris Milkowski, Barb Salzman, MaryAnn Hrabrich, Adele Bolsega; seated: Rosalie Skertich, Mary Ellen Grenchik, Karen Kolodziej: Barb Hodgoson. At the 1974 induction, Mr. St. Amour presented the awards.

The Student Council is the organization through which students present their questions, their suggestions, and, sometimes, their irritations, to the Administration. It is also the organization through which all other organizations of the school operate, as the officers keep a master calendar on which they record all dates for gym nights, movie nights, games, and dances, and thus avoid conflicts between different activities sponsored by different groups.

The Student Council itself annually sponsors all Homecoming activities and Winter Formal. This year the Council sponsored "First Annual Locker Cleaning Week" which resulted in the return of over one hundred books to the library.

The Apostolic Services Program initiated by Father Connolly for the 1972-73 school year was greatly expanded this year, with student volunteers continuing their services to the elderly at the Lake County Home, and also working with retarded children at the Day Care Center in Highland. Some students worked as tutors in English, reading, and mathematics, while others helped develop sports and recreational activities, at the Carmelite Home. Mr. Gerry Knesek worked with Father Connolly to co-ordinate these activities; Mrs. Betty Langedyk also helped with the elderly and the retarded.

Another volunteer program initiated this year was the Hot Line, a program intended to give comfort, encouragement, sympathy, and strength to young people with drug problems.

SERVICE CLUB

Members of the Bishop Noll Service Club, sponsored by Mrs. Mary Michielsen, unselfishly devote their time and energy to serving at all school functions during the year. These junior and senior girls, selected on the recommendation of their teachers, help to make events like the Sports Banquets and the Dinner Style Show run smoothly. They spend hours before the events setting the tables; during the dinners they run back and forth. pouring coffee, refilling cream pitchers and sugar bowls, finding just a little more butter; when the guests leave, the girls stay on, clearing all the tables. Service Club girls also donate their time on free days, helping to show Noll facilities and Noll hospitality-to visitors. One of the main events sponsored annually by the Service Club is Turnabout.

Human Relations And Hi-Y

The Human Relations Club has "just started to really grow, not as individuals, divided and separated, but as a collective, functioning organization", according to club president, Larry Washington. This year, one of the main events of the group was the Human Relations Club Talent Show, held May 3rd. Not only was it a success financially, but it proved that students could work together and produce what was termed by Vernon Brown, "a real together jam." A first for the club was an invitation to participate in a city-wide meeting of all Human Relations Clubs in the Hammond area, which Brother Andrew and Mrs. Patricia MacGregor felt was rewarding.

MISSION CLUB

The main goal of the Mission Club is to make students aware of the poor and the needy right here in the Calumet area, and then to make students aware of the joy they may find in sharing their goods with those in need.

Each year the Mission Club fills and distributes Thanksgiving baskets and Christmas baskets. To raise money for these baskets, weekly raffles are held; students are also urged to bring canned goods, toys, and articles of clothing.

One of the principal fund-raising activities of the club is the annual Mardi Gras. This year the Mardi Gras was cancelled because of a crowded school calendar, but the sponsor, Father Mosko, has filed away the plans, to be ready for a bigger and better Mardi Gras next year.

SPEECH AND DEBATE

Members of the Speech and Debate Team gain valuable experience in logical, orderly thinking, as well as in public speaking. Debaters participate in a series of argumentative discussions on assigned topics in the presence of a judge, while competitors in speech participate in poetry reading, dramatics, and oratory, as well as impromptu and extemporaneous speaking.

At the start of the season, the Debate Team consisted of only four members: Dennis Dvorshak, Ted Bloch, Michele Hicks, and John Kenward. However, the team, coached by Miss Janice Koss and Father Paul Tomasula, compiled an impressive record in local and state-wide competition, while the Speech Team succeeded in qualifying two members, Dennis Dvorshak and Ken Kristl, for regional competition.

SOPHOMORE MATH CLUB

Sophomores who enjoy the challenge of mathematics, the stimulation of struggling with theorems and corollaries, ratios and equations, find an outlet for their entusiasm in the Sophomore Math Club sponsored by Mr. Queyquep. The two highlights of the year for the organization were the Math Tournament, in February, which brought together eighth graders from thirty-eight Catholic schools in the Calumet area for an afternoon of competition, and the Mathematics Symposium, in April, with a guest speaker and presentation of awards to deserving club members.

BAND

The various band groups at Bishop Noll served many important functions throughout the year. With its spirited drum rolls and trumpet blasts, the Pep Band provided real support for the football and basketball teams; in the Homecoming Parade and in the Hammond Christmas Parade, the Marching Band displayed the smooth music and smooth maneuvers that are the result of hours of diligent practice. From overture to finale, the Stage Band contributed greatly to the success of the 1974 Spring Musical, Mame; and at the Christmas Concert and the Spring Concert, the Concert Band delighted audiences with their progress under Mr. LaMantia.

At Holy Angels Cathedral on the bright sunshiny morning of May 24, members of the choral groups at Bishop Noll reached the culmination of their year of music. Throughout the year the groups had entertained widely different audiences on widely different occasions. They had sung the liturgy for the Thanksgiving Mass in the fieldhouse; they had sung Christmas music for the women at the Christmas Luncheon at Noll, and for the elderly at the Lake County Home. Some of the singers had joined in the rousing choruses of "Mame" in the Spring Musical; then they had performed in the spring concerts at Noll and on the Canadian tour. Then on that bright May morning they filled the cathedral with praise and joy at the Baccalaureate Mass.

CHORAL

G.A.A. and Swim Guards Trackettes Mat Maids Bat Girls

It was stated very clearly on the sports pages of yearbooks of other years: "At Noll there is an event for every boy with any desire to excel in athletics . . ." The Girls' Athletic Association was organized that there might be an event for every girl with any desire to excel in athletics. In the program sponsored by Miss Sheila Kelly, members compete in volley-ball, basketball, softball, and track; tennis, bowling, golf, and swimming received special emphasis this year as Miss Kelly sought to interest members in sports activities they might pursue individually, independently, to maintain a high level of physical fitness throughout their lives. The Swim Guards. The Trackettes, the Mart Maids, and the Bat Girls are all avid sports fans who do not care to compete, but who still wish to participate in some way. They assist the coaches by making posters, writing up lineups, drawing up scoreboards; by measuring, timing, and keeping statistics.

VARSITY CLUB

It's a proud day for an athlete when he receives the big blue "N" he has earned through so many grueling hours, days, weeks, months of practice and competition, and another proud day when he wears his letter on his blue sweater to Noll for the first time. It was to preserve this pride in the lettermen, and to foster students' appreciation for the lettermen, that the Varsity Club was organized. The "boys in blue" try to stimulate student interest in athletic events. They wear their lettermen sweaters to class on days of sports contests; they check coats and serve as ushers at the games; this year they covered up their sweaters with heavy raincoats while they directed parking for the more than 3,000 fans who jammed the fieldhouse for the Hammond High game. Mr. Bob Brandtke and Mr. Jerry Vlasic sponsor the club

CHEERLEADERS

In the heat of the summer they pedal their bicycles up to Noll and to each other's houses, to practice their splits and pyramids, their hand-clapping, fingersnapping, and fancy footwork. They make up new cheers, work out new routines, then practice them all day every day at summer cheerleading camp. They press their uniforms, sew on numerals and chevrons-and cheer. From the Football-O-Rama in ninety-degree heat to the last game in bone-chilling, teeth-chattering, muc-spattering rain, they lead the fans who cheer for the Warriors, urging the Blue and Gold to "fight, fight, fight for every yard," to "hit that line . . . hit that line . . ."

Then the cheerleaders move into the fieldhouse, to cheer for the basketball team "When Hammond Noll goes dribbling down that floor." Now they urge the Warriors to "hit that rim . . . sink it in."

A new group of cheerleaders appeared on the scene at Noll for the 1973-74 season. These were the Junior High Cheerleaders, who practiced almost daily to learn the school song and all the traditional cheers, in order to contribute support and encouragement to the newest, youngest group of Bishop Noll Warriors, the Junior High Basketball Team. The Junior High Cheerleaders are sponsored by Mrs. Ann Crawford, while Miss Carole Hepner continues to sponsor the Varsity Cheerleaders, the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders, and the Freshman Cheerleaders.

POM PONS AND PEP CLUB

"Up. Up. and Away." onto the football field and the basketball court, before the games and at halftime, the Pom Pon Girls strut, adding their bit of color and excitement, of spirit, to the games.

Mary Beth Reardon and Judy Imes were responsible for working out the routines for the Poms this year. The girls practiced their steps to tapes made by the band—this year they performed to "Mickey Mouse Medley"—then at game time they "put it all together" with the band. The Poms also performed in parades for Memorial Day and the 4th of July, for the Christmas parade and the Purdue Homecoming Parade. Miss Therese McMahon and Mrs. Cecelia Weigle sponsor the Pom Pons.

The Pep Club, newly activated by Coach Ray Zawada for the 1973-74 basketball season, used "mind dynamics," "body English," and good old-fashined lung power to support the Warriors. Seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen signed up with Mr. Zawada; inspired before every game by his "Spirit Line," members piled into the stands in their bright yellow shirts, and with their cheers, shouts, screams, and songs, helped all the Warriors realize: "We're proud of our team."

CROSS COUNTRY

All summer long, running alone or in packs, the men of Coach John Bobalik's Cross Country squad pounded out the miles. Three runners, Carlos Molina, Mike Matusz, and Charles Tuskan, ran twenty-six miles in a marathon race in Terre Haute; eight runners qualified for membership in the 500 Mile Club, while Carlos Molina became the first runner in the history of Bishop Noll to run 1,000 miles in one three-month period. The fall competition featured a predominantly junior-sophomore squad, with only three seniors on the varsity team, only one of them with running experience. The varsity team finished fourth in the Lake Shore Conference; the freshman-sophomore squad finished a close second.

FOOTBALL

It was a green team Coach Jerry Vlasic sent onto the field for the 1973 season; with only three senior players, John Jancosek, Ron Mazar, and Al Williams, Mr. Vlasic had to rely heavily on his squad of underclassmen. But the season was far better than the record of 4-6 would indicate. Two of the games were real nailbiters, lost by only one point on the very last play of the game. And two of the players ranked second in the area, out of thirty-two schools: Kevin Matovina, who passed for 1011 yards; and Steve Mitchell, who set a school record with 32 receptions for 622 yards. It was a building year for the Warriors; and 26 built-up lettermen will be returning for the 1974 season.

SWIMMING-1974 WAS A VERY GOOD YEAR!

1974 LAKE SHORE CONFERENCE SWIMMING CHAMPIONS

Swimming one of the toughest schedules in the state, Coach Don Vish's Warriors posted a 7-4 dual meet record, losing only to such teams as State Champion Mun- Du. ster, runnerup South Bend Adams, and third-ranked South Bend Jackson, while set- Tou ting fourteen new team and pool records, and winning Noll's first varsity Lake Shore Conference championship. The outstanding meet of the year was the La Porte Relays, with the team setting a new record for total points in the meet, while winning first place trophies in ten of eleven events.

In sectionals, Noll placed second behind Munster, with eight swimmers qualifying for the state meet in seven events. Led by seniors Tim Kennedy and Harry Dolinski, the Warriors placed fourth in State Championships; the 400 Freestyle Relay of Kennedy, Dolinski, Pat O'Neill, and Harold Weatherford not only won All-State honors by placing 3rd, but won consideration for All-American status.

The 1973-74 season was disappointing for the Wrestling War-iors—in the number of meets lost, and in the number of men lost from the squads. Varsity Coach Jim Tobolski had only one senior. Tom Ancich: Mr. Sivulich had almost all first-year wrestlers competing against wrestlers with two or three years of experience: Mr. Sebestyen finished the year with ten of the twenty-four freshmen he started with. Since wrestling is one sport in which boys of all sizes can participate, and receive the benefits of sports competition, the coaches feel the real losers of the year were not the boys who lost interest, or lost heart, and so were lost to the teams. But with nine wrestlers returning as seniors, and with two wrestlers. Tony Dorin and Warren Biederstadt, who qualified for 'regional competition this year, the coaches look forward to 1974-75 as the "Year of the Grapplers."

BASKETBALL

Returning to the hardwoods after the 1973 regional championship season, the Bishop Noll Warriors once again proved to be truly "amazing." Under the skillful direction of Mr. Robert Bradtke, the Warriors finished the season with an excellent 17-5 record. The Warriors were once again led by MVP Tom Ispas and senior sharpshooter Phil Doherty, with Ray Baron and Ron Mazar giving the Warriors awesome rebounding strength. Junior Wally Kasprzycki, too, supplied the size and stamina needed under the backboards, while Paul Poberevko showed real speed and aggressiveness at guard. The Warriors also boasted a strong bench with Kevin Cohorst, Tom Philpot, Ted Pietrzak, and Rupert Paul.

Three of the Warriors' five losses were by just one point, including the heartbreaking 68-67 sectional loss to Hammond High. However, the Warriors' seventeen victories included one never-to-be-forgotten game before 3600 fans in the packed fieldhouse, the sparkling 69-63 victory over then top-ranked and undefeated Hammond High.

TRACK

Coaches John Bobalik, John Cerajewski, and Don Sebestven entered the new season with a nucleus of 8 returning lettermen led by co-captains: Randy Simko, Carlos Molina, Darryl Hughes, and Dave Tolin. Although this year's squad was characterized by youngness and inexperience at some key varsity positions, during the indoor season the Warriors finished 9-7 in dual meet competition. In the Lake Shore Conference Indoor Meet, they ran to a 4th place finish. The J.V. finished 9-1 in dual meet competition and won the L.S.C.J.V. meet. Outdoors, after losing the first 2 meets to Hammond High and E.C. Washington, the Warriors went on to win their next 6 conference meets in a row, including upset wins over highly talented teams such as Hammond Tech.

BASEBALL—THE WINNING WARRIORS

The year 1974 proved to be another successful season for the Warrior baseball team, as they captured their third straight sectional title, their fifth in the last eight seasons. The Warriors also won the Lake Shore Conference Championship, their first in only two years of competition, while compiling the Region's best overall record of twenty-five wins and nine losses, including a thirteengame winning streak. Leading the Warriors to Coach Jim Anderson's fourth straight twenty-win season was MVP Steve Mitchell, who hurled a record of twelve wins and two losses. The offensive threat was led by co-captains Phil Doherty and Paul Pobereyko, along with senior Tom Ispas, who led the team with a record-breaking thirty-five stolen bases, and who hit at a .329 clip. Impressive victories included wins over Illinois power Lane Tech and a double header sweep at South Bend, plus sectional victories over Munster, Gavit, and Whiting. The Warrior attack was hampered early by injuries to juniors Tom Philpot and Steve Mitchell, and a season-ending knee injury to Mike Halton. With experienced pitching and solid defense returning next season, Coach Anderson should again field one of the strongest teams in the state.

WE'RE HERE.. BEHIND THE TEAMS.

We're the people in the crowd.

We're the faces with the proud smiles, the worried frowns, and, sometimes, the tears. We're the loud voices singing, ringing, "We don't mess around," and "We're proud of our team." We are the Warriors' battle cry.

We cheer our teams on to victory, and we cheer them up in defeat.

We don't make the teams . . . but we help make the teams what they are!

WE'RE HERE.. BEHIND THE SCENES.

We're the people with the paint and glue, the hammer and nails, the thumb tacks and the tape . . . and the blisters on our hands.

We paint posters and banners and scenery; we sew costumes for the plays, and tissue paper flowers for the floats.

tissue paper flowers for the floats.
We haul in card tables and palm trees, we set up chairs and refreshment stands, we decorate the showcase, we check coats.
We put it all together. ...
We make the events happen.

Dance to a new rhythm, Whistle a new song

ORIENTATION

Suddenly they were over—those "lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer"—and it was time for Noll students to pay tuition, pick up schedules, buy textbooks—and start school! Students who found that they had three religion classes and no chemistry joined the long lines at Student Services, while other students lined up to pick up uniforms at the Attendance Office.

New freshmen wandered through the maze of corridors, clutching schedules, checks, and twenty-dollar bills, trying to find the D Building, the F Building, and the stairway to the third floor of the A Building.

Sophomores, juniors, seniors all knew their way around: they whizzed through the red tape with at least the appearance of self-confidence and assurance. Teachers, too, faced orientation day, picking up new plan books and grade books, studying their new schedules, scanning class lists, and getting ready to give homework!

SPIRIT WEEK OCTOBER 8-15

Nostalgia Day brought a wave of bobby socks and saddle shoes on "greasers" and pony-tailed girls pouring into Noll; then School Color Day filled the halls with wallto-wall blue and gold. Seniors practiced daily for their pep rally skit, "Who's Afraid of the Waller Wolves?" and then rushed home to make more, more, MORE tissue flowers for the floats for the big parade. Loyal Warriors darted in and out among the floats, selling balloons, stiring up more spirit for . . . the big game! The Warriors had no trouble keeping the big bad wolves away from the door . . . or the goalposts . . . defeating the Chicago team easily, 34-0, to the delight of all the Noll Homecoming fans, and especially the 1973 Homecoming Queen, Cori Koricich, whose crowning was the highlight of the half-time ceremonies.

A Parisian cafe and an Egyptian pyramid, wooden shoes filled with bright tulips. Egyptian urns spilling ropes of jewels—all these were part of the "world" created by Claudia Romanek, general chairman, and Dokey La Mere, chairman of dance decorations, and their committees, for the 1974 Homecoming Dance, "Around the World in 80 Days."

Kris Mulholland and Mary Bugajski, chairmen for the band, arranged for the music of "Sunday" to entertain couples as they celebrated Homecoming 1974.

FALL DRAMA-AH, WILDERNESS

"A book of verses underneath the bough, A loaf of bread, a jug of wine, and thou Beside me singing in the wilderness— Ah, wilderness were paradise enow!" —The Rubaiyat of Omar Khayam

The Fall Drama for 1973 was Ah, Wilderness! Eugene O'Neill's tender comedy about the "generation gap" in a small town in New England in the early 1900's.

Robert Roach and Eileen Boyle played the parts of the parents worried about the books their son was reading, and the late hours he was keeping: Dave Flood played the father concerned about the strange young man his daughter was becoming interested in: while John Dragus and Debbie Garbacik played the two young people falling in love, finding that even the "wilderness" of a small town in Connecticut could be "paradise." The comedy was directed by Miss Marilyn Popovich, assisted by Mr. Douglas Parker, with Mrs. Sharon Blumentritt supervising the settings for the "average home" of this "typical American family."

WINTER FORMAL "SOMETIMES IN WINTER"

"Sometimes in Winter" there comes a night when the whole world seems wrapped in white velvet, with diamond stars caught in the branches of every tree. Just such a night was January 4, when "Sometimes in Winter" became one very special time in winter, the night of Winter Formal. The theme "Sometimes in Winter" was taken by general chairman Ray Luniewski and Gail Koharko from a song by "Blood, Sweat, and Tears." Decorations chairman Debbie Mazurkiewicz and Lydia Skurka were responsible for bringing all the beauty of winter inside of the Noll cafeteria; they created an enchanted forest and a New England village with a little toy shop; they set up a cozy fireplace, and Christmas trees with glittering ornaments. Snow King Mark Hajduch and Snow Queen Jeannie Hartnett reigned for a night over this winter wonderland; their "subjects" proclaimed "Sometimes in Winter" to be one of the best times in winter.

TURNABOUT

They choose their words with infinite care. try them out before their mirrors. practice them on their friends: Then they wait for the right moment. The girls watching the handsome redhead in religion class, or the brown-eyed boy with the nice smile, finally have their chance at the one dance at Noll to which the girls ask the boys . . . TURNABOUT.

The theme chosen this year by general cochairmen Charlene Brooks and Marlene Mantich was "Just You 'n' Me.," the theme of the song made popular by "Chicago." Decorations chairman Eileen Boyle and Michele Hicks transformed the cafeteria into a garden of rosy-red hearts and flowers; there Sweetheart Queen Michele Hicks and her court were entertained by the music of "Ginger."

Service Club recruits. Raggedy Ann and Andy, serve refreshments while Gwen Vondrak and Mike Davids enjoy a dance. Annette Buzinski crowns Michele Hicks as Sweetheart Queen while her escort Bob Walsh looks on.

Laura Kolbus and Patti Halcarz do their part in decorating. Eileen Boyle and Susan Dominic set up the showcase. Cindy Mihalik displays her artwork through a Turnabout mural. Rosemary Sifel works diligently.

Your special fascination'll prove to be inspirational; We think you're just sensational . . .

MAME

There were long weeks of blocking out moves, memorizing lines, practicing songs and dance routines; there was a ramp to be constructed, a stairway to be built and carpeted; there were costumes to be pinned and cut, fitted and sewed... and then it was time. The curtains opened on the first of six evening performances and two special matines performances of the 1974 Bishop Noll musical, MAME. Carlos Candeleria and Terre Pettis, playing young Patrick Dennis and Agnes Gooch, stepped out onto the ramp, on their way to Beekman Place, to Patrick's eccentric, extroverted Auntite Mame, played by Janellen Tilka, who would teach the boy. "There's a thank you you can give life if you live life all the way..."

MAME was directed by Miss Marilyn Popovich; Mr. P. James LaMantia was Music Director: Reverend John Winterlin, Choral Director. Mrs. Sharon Blumentritt designed the sets, while Mrs. Sally Evanoff created the nostalgic costumes.

DRAMA FESTIVAL

This year saw the revival of the Drama Festival here at Noll. Centered around the theme of "Liberated Ladies of Literature." actors. singers, and dancers from Junior High to Faculty displayed their talent. Under the direction of Mr. Malczak, Mr. Mutzbauer, Ms. Popovich, Mrs. Forcey, Mr. Mehok, Mrs. Kelly, Mr. Pressner and students, Juanita Bush and Renalta Walters, the festival was divided into three segments. These segments were put together on April 27 and April 28 for two evening performances. The money from these performances was to go for the literary magazine, Extendions.

Top right: 7th & 8th graders pose as characters from the Wizard of Oz. Juniors and Seniors dance to the music from "Fiddler on the Roof". Millie Lolich portrays Dolly Levi. Kathy Coley does her interpretation of Miss Jane Pittman.

Couples in balcony watch as others enjoy the music of Cracker. Theresa Lewicki gets carried away. Mary Alice Tijerina and her escort select a charm to remember a wonderful evening.

PROM 1974

The Conrad Hilton, in Chicago, hosted the 1974 Junior-Senior Prom. "Pieces of April". In the Grand Ballroom on April 20, 1974. couples walked through mirror-lined corridors and danced under beautiful chandeliers to the music of Cracker, General chairmen, Dominic Raso and Jane Ellen Tilka crowned Prom Queen Corrine Koricich and King Philip Doherty. Mr. James Pressner was the sponsor for this event. Too soon, a lovely and memorable night ended as couples boarded the buses for home.

Each spring the members of the band, directed by Mr. La Mantia, and the different choral groups, directed by Father Winterlin and Mr. Sherman, entertain their classmates and their parents in concerts in which they demonstrate the talents they have discovered and developed through their year of music. This year a combined concert was held on Mother's Day. Sunday. May 12; this concert was repeated the following Wednesday, before a delighted audience of the entire freshman class. This performance served as the final dress rehearsal for the highlight of the year, the concert tour to Canada. On Wednesday at noon the students piled onto the buses with their suitcases, duffel bags, trombones and tubas—and with the "care packages" provided by loving parents—and rolled away on the tour for which they had foreamed, planned, practiced—and to finance which they had sold boxes and boxes of candy.

SENIOR WEEK-1974

They had started the countdown right after Christmas vacation; they had crossed off all the days of all the months with big red X's. They still had three chapters in sociology to read, and one hundred forty pages of 1984...

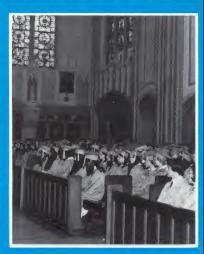

Then suddenly it was May 22. It was THE LAST DAY. There was the last lunch at the special table in the cafeteria; the last hasty scrawling of the last words on the last paper; the last cramming for the last exam in THE LAST CLASS...

Then they erupted out of the doors, into the parking lot. They exploded a few firecrackers, raced a few engines, and roared off . . . only to return, just a few hours later, for the Senior Dance, to the music of the All-Star Frogs.

Seniors receive conies of Senior Issue of JourNall

The sun was shining, after days, weeks of rain, as the seniors in bright blue caps and gowns gathered on the steps before Holy Angels Cathedral. As they entered the church, the concert choir, under the direction of Father Winterlin, sang the Bach Chorale, "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee." Then the priests who had taught them in the classroom moved to the altar, to concelebrate the Mass with Bishop Grutka, as the choir sang "Prepare ye the Way of the Lord," from Godspell, accompanied by the brass sextet from the symphonic band.

After the recessional, "Man and His World," from the Canadian Expo '67, the seniors found members of the JourNoll staff waiting to distribute copies of the Senior Issue, with the class will and prophecies, the class memories. It was

GRADUATION-1974

"And let today embrace the past with remembrance and the future with longing."

With these words from Kahlil Gibran, Salutatorian Adrianne Sobilo welcomed parents and grandparents, faculty and friends to the Fifty-first Commencement, on May 27, and expressed the gratitude of the Class of 1974 to all those who had made the day possible. Valedictorian Mary Louise Bilek stated her belief that the graduates were not really leaving Bishop Noll, since all were taking a part of Bishop Noll with them.

Then Bishop Grutka spoke to his flock, exhorting them to continue the search to know the depths in themselves, the heights in themselves, and the search to know how to change the world.

Lower right: Junior Joseph Hughes, who received diploma with Class of 1974.

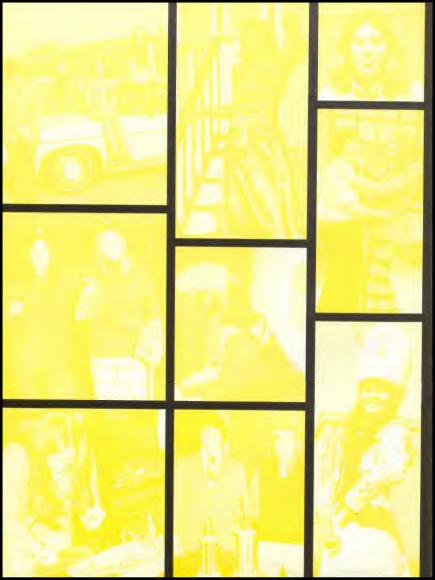

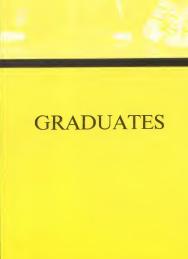

Mr. Douglas Parker, Senior Class Sponsor, read off the names, and one by one the three hundred forty-nine graduates marched to the stage to receive their diplomas.

Then Father Vrabely called one more graduate to the stage: Junior Joseph Hughes, ranked Number One in the Class of 1975 throughout his three years at Bishop Noll, had accumulated enough credits to graduate with the Class of 1974.

Simply travel a new highway, Dance to a new rhythm, Open a new window Every day!

THEY'RE HERE-OUR PARENTS

They're here—climbing the stairs, walking the long halls, showing their interest in our school, our classes, in US, on the Parents' Walk-Around. And they're here climbing the same stairs, walking the same halls, as they help to administer the school's eve-testing and ear-testing programs.

They're here—chaperoning all our dances, our gym nights, our movie nights; they're here, cheering us in all our victories, consoling us in all our losses—and they're here arranging a surprise party for the swimming team, a hot lunch for the baseball team.

They're here-selling tickets, making decorations-working on the Men's Club Raffle, the Spaghetti Dinner, the Christmas Luncheon, the Dinner Style Show. On this page we would like to say THANK YOU.

WE'RE HERE! Well, this is it—the 1974 Marquette. It took a lot of hard work and frustration to get it done but we feel it was worth it. There will probably be some of you who aren't completely satisfied with this book. Maybe next year you will be one of those who will try to improve it. This year we have tried to go behind the scenes to capture all those people who have made so many activities at Noll a success and have not been recognized in the past. In this year's Marquette are pictures, memories, and emotions. We hope we have captured some that are special to you.

We would like to thank Root Photographers for all the times they came out to the school to take yet another picture or to bring us more supplies. In addition, we would like to thank Father Tomasula for doing us so many favors, our publisher, Mr. George Kingsley, and everyone who has given us help. Most of all, we would like to give special thankyous to two very special people, Mrs. La Mere and Mrs. Crawford, for putting in so much of their own time and hard work. Without them, this yearbook could not have been what it is.

This school year is history now and all of you have helped to make it. So celebrate-IT'S TODAY!
